

DISCOVER YOUR PASSION

Over the years, Santa Clara has invested in public facilities that provide a place where residents can learn new things, enjoy community and pursue a hobby. Hundreds of different activities for all ages, many of them free of charge, are offered each year at the Community Recreation Center, the Senior Center, the Teen Center, the Walter E. Schmidt Youth Activity Center and the Libraries.

Passionate interests of resident volunteers are responsible for some of Santa Clara's most unique features such as its history museums, model railroad displays at the Santa Clara Depot, and Sister Cities relationships with Izumo, Japan, Coimbra, Portugal, and Limerick, Ireland. Dozens of clubs and nonprofit organizations in Santa Clara cater to specific enthusiasms, and all welcome new members.

A special effort is made in Santa Clara to help young people discover and pursue their passions, including scholarships and leadership/civic engagement programs. Library activities for youth introduce them to new fields and prepare them for further education and careers.

Central Studio at Central Park Library encourages residents of all ages to explore their creativity.
