SC MySantaClara knows how to have a good time

Almost every month there is a special community event in Santa Clara designed to bring residents together to celebrate and enjoy each other's company. They range from huge gatherings such as the annual Art & Wine Festival that attracts thousands to small neighborhood potlucks or ice cream socials for National Night Out. Many are cooperative ventures between the City and local service clubs, arts groups or hobbyists.

In the spring, there is an Easter egg hunt for little ones and a wildflower celebration at Ulistac Natural Area. In the summer, residents enjoy fireworks, golf tournaments, open air concerts and a street dance. When the weather turns cold, it's outdoor ice skating and holiday lighting competitions.

Residents can keep up with coming events by signing up for Enotify on the City's website and by following Santa Clara on social media. See the inside back cover of the calendar for information on how to stay connected.

"My weekend doesn't start until I go to the Farmers Market to buy fresh produce and connect with friends. So fun!"
