The City of Santa Clara celebrates LGBTQ Pride Month Community invited to flag raising ceremony

- What: Flag Ceremony in honor of the month of June as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer (LGBTQ) Pride Month for the City of Santa Clara
- Who: Mayor Lisa M. Gillmor
Santa Clara City Council
Supervisor Ken Yeager, Santa Clara County
Gabrielle Antolovich, President, Billy De Frank Center
- When: Friday, June 1, 2018
10:00 a.m.
- Where: City of Santa Clara – Quad
1500 Warburton Avenue
Santa Clara, CA 95050
- Background: The City Council recognized the month of June as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer (LGBTQ) Pride Month. On November 13, 2012, the City of Santa Clara adopted Ordinance No. 1899 to protect and safeguard the right and opportunity of all persons to be free from all forms of arbitrary discrimination, including discrimination based on age, race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, and sexual orientation.

The City of Santa Clara invites community leaders, advocates and members of the public to participate at the LGBTQ Pride Flag Raising Ceremony. The Flag Raising Ceremony celebrates significant milestones in LGBTQ history and the City of Santa Clara honors the month of June as LGBTQ Pride Month.
