Frequently Asked Questions

1. How much will the Direct Payment program cost me?

The City of Santa Clara does not charge for this service.

2. If I pay my bill automatically, how will I know how much will be deducted?

The amount deducted is listed as the "Amount Due" on your utility bill.

3. When will my payment be deducted?

Your payment will be withdrawn from your checking account on the "Past Due Date" listed on your bill.

4. If my payment is processed on the "Past Due Date", will I receive a late charge?

No. Late Charges are assessed on the day after the "Past Due Date".

5. What if I have questions regarding my bill?

Please contact the Contact Center at 408-615-2300 for all billing questions.

6. If I move within Santa Clara and I am already on the Direct Payment program, do I need to apply again?

Yes. You would need to submit a new application. New Direct Payment applications and transfer requests generally take two (2) billing cycles to take effect. It is your responsibility to make payments on your account until Direct Payment enrollment is indicated on your bill.

7. What if I want to stop using the Direct Payment program?

Direct Payment changes and cancellations generally take two (2) billing cycles to take effect. To make changes or stop participation in the plan, please call 408-615-2300 or send your request to the address listed below. It is your responsibility to make payments until these changes are in effect.

8. When will the Direct Payment program start?

New Direct Payment applications generally start within two (2) billing cycles. It is your responsibility to make payments on your account until your payment stub reflects "Direct Payment" in the amount enclosed box.

9. Will my closing bill be paid automatically?

Yes. The "Amount Due" will be processed on the "Past Due Date" stated on the closing bill.
