Resisting Arrest

Location: Monroe Street and Sahara Way

An officer traveling on Monroe Street near Cabrillo Avenue observed a vehicle with a partially removed 2021 registration tab. The officer conducted a DMV check and learned the vehicle was last registered in March 2018. The officer initiated a traffic enforcement stop.

The female driver had never been issued a driver license and did not have insurance for the vehicle.

The subject was issued a citation and released from the scene. She gathered a few belongings from the vehicle and thanked the officer for service to our community. The officer requested the vehicle be towed.

At approximately 2149 hours, the officer heard a male subject yelling expletives and running toward the officer in an aggressive manner. The officer gave the subject commands however the subject continued to approach the officer in a combative stance. The officer unholstered a Department-issued Conducted Electrical Weapon until additional police resources arrived on scene. The subject eventually complied despite continuing to be verbally aggressive.

The subject was determined to be upset about the vehicle being towed. He was arrested and transported to the Santa Clara County Jail.
