Youth Commission Committee Reports on Work Plan Goals for FY2021/22

The Youth Commission's FY2021/22 work plan will include themes of community building, youth empowerment, and youth outreach. Each theme will have a committee comprised of Youth Commissioners to plan activities to deliver to the community.

Community Building Committee: Have received two Indian dance videos and associated photo/video release forms. Committee is expecting to receive two more videos soon. The next committee meeting will be held on Monday, April 18 at 6:00 p.m.

Youth Empowerment Committee: Did not meet in May. At the next meeting the committee members will begin working on the technical aspects of recording audio for a podcast. The next committee meeting will be held on Thursday, April 7 at 6:00 p.m.

Youth Outreach Committee: Are considering the next group to prepare packages of gratitude for and have focused on hospital workers, unsheltered youth, and seniors are under consideration. The next committee meeting will be held on Monday, April 18 at 5:30 p.m.

STAFF REPORT

Rachel Hughes, Library: The Library will be hosting a youth poetry contest for 2-12 graders with separate divisions and a virtual poetry workshop on April 12 at 4:30 p.m. Browsing is now available for the public at all branches, but hours are still limited. Summer volunteer applications are now being accepted. The Library is hiring part-time pages and assistants (job announcements will be up in May).

Gayle Ichiho, Recreation Supervisor: The Parks & Recreation Department is hosting a summer camp fair and Sunset Cinema outdoor movie ("Encanto") on Friday, April 22 at Reed & Grant Sports Complex, the Health and Wellness Fair will be at the Senior Center on Friday, May 20, and the spring Recreation Activity Guide is out now and the summer guide will be released soon.

Jon Kawada, Staff Liaison: Updated Commissioners on the completed term interviews and the process of recognizing outgoing Commissioners and putting forth recommended candidates for the next term to Council. Seeking a few more Commissioners to volunteer at the Breakfast with the Bunny event on Saturday, April 9 at the Senior Center to assist with set-up, serving breakfast, egg hunt, and clean-up.

MEETING DISCLOSURES

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
