ADJOURNMENT

The next regularly scheduled meeting will be on Tuesday, March 14, 2023, at 6:00 p.m.

MEETING DISCLOSURES

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

Youth Commission Committee Reports on Work Plan Goals for FY2022/23

Community Building: Will be hosting an activity/craft for youth at the May 12 Sunset Cinema showing of "Moana", working with the Senior Advisory Commission for an intergenerational discussion called "Coffee Chat" in the spring, and potentially a multicultural night bringing together various student groups.

Youth Empowerment: Create podcasts on how to navigate high school and beyond and mental health awareness with local professional providers.

Youth Outreach: Create resource pamphlet and web page for new youth residents (things to do, places to study, services, etc.) and host a TEDx-type speaker conference.

STAFF REPORT

Library: Teen Hangouts have started for the new year again on Tuesdays from 4-5 p.m. at Central Library.

Jon Kawada, Staff Liaison: Youth Commissioners were informed of a volunteer opportunity at the Breakfast with the Bunny activity on Saturday, April 1 at the Senior Center. Commissioners were encouraged to participate in various community meetings to learn more and provide youth input on upcoming parks projects, housing developments and other City-related projects. Commissioners were queried on the current meeting schedule and no concerns were raised for future discussion. Applications for the 2023-24 term will be available in mid-February.

Agenda Report

23-165

Agenda Date: 2/14/2023

SUBJECT

Youth Commission FY2022/23 Work Plan & Goals

BACKGROUND

The Youth Commission develops an annual work plan through discussions of current trends and civic needs relating to the youth and teen population. Over the past few terms, the Commission has chosen various goals including:

- To encourage health and wellness;
- To provide public outreach and education; and
- To foster inclusiveness in the community.

DISCUSSION

At the November 8, 2022 meeting, the Youth Commission finalized its work plan priorities and goals for the FY2022/23 term. The work plan priorities include:

- Community Building: intergenerational conversations with seniors, and hosting a Sunset Cinema movie on May 12;
- Youth Outreach: new youth resident resources, and public outreach;
- Youth Empowerment: Opportunity to highlight youth voices via audio podcast, newsletter, etc., TED-type talk.

Commissioners have formed committees for each priority to develop specific plans of action. Committee members will provide updates on their progress during the Youth Commission's monthly meetings throughout the term.

The final work plan goals for this term will continue to be discussed, evaluated, prioritized, and implemented in the context of existing City resources and any remaining pandemic related public health guidelines.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW

The action being considered does not constitute a "project" within the meaning of the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") pursuant to CEQA Guidelines section 15378(b)(5) in that it is a governmental organizational or administrative activity that will not result in direct or indirect changes in the environment.

PUBLIC CONTACT

Public contact was made by posting the Youth Commission's agenda on the City's official-notice bulletin board outside City Hall Council Chambers. A complete agenda packet is available on the City's website and in the City Clerk's Office at least 72 hours prior to a Regular Meeting and 24 hours prior to a Special Meeting. A hard copy of any agenda report may be requested by contacting the City Clerk's Office at (408) 615-2220, email clerk@santaclaraca.gov clerk@santaclaraca.gov.
