I tried to save Santa Clara residents $500,000 – but failed. That's why I'm running for City Council. Last year, on the City Charter Review Committee, I fought for our right to elect our Police Chief. Despite 72% of Santa Clarans supporting this right, the City Council majority ignored us and cost the city $500,000 by putting it on the ballot.

I'm running because of that experience. On the City Council, I pledge to:

Defend our rights and save tax dollars, using my business degree and experience.

Regain public trust, having taken the Santa Clara Ethics Pledge.

Protect and improve our neighborhoods, particularly with the stadium in our district.

My leadership and integrity have earned endorsements from Police Chief Pat Nikolai, Mayor Lisa Gillmor, Councilmember Kathy Watanabe, and more. I've lived in Santa Clara for a decade, serve on the Police Chief Advisory Committee, and was President of the Toscana Rivermark Community Association. I support public safety and community.

I actively support local non-profits: Don Callejon School PTO, Sankara Eye Foundation, and Kaboom Youth Foundation.

I ask for your vote to serve on the City Council.
