Santa Clara is a great place to work, live and raise a family. I have personally, witnessed it, my three boys graduated from Wilcox High School and went on to attend prestigious universities. I am indebted to Santa Clara for providing the environment that enabled my children to succeed. I believe our city can benefit from my experience and proven leadership skills, which is why I'm running to be your councilmember.

To thrive in Santa Clara, we must prioritize affordable housing, timely city services, park enhancements, support for seniors and full funding for our Fire and Police Departments.

"Albert Gonzalez is a voice that our community needs. He is congenial, thoughtful and introspective. His leadership is acknowledged regionally and throughout the state as he was elected to serve as President of the California School Boards Association", Andrew Ratermann, Governing Board member, Santa Clara Unified School Board.

Santa Clara Unified School District Board President Vickie Fairchild says "I wholeheartedly endorse Albert Gonzalez for the Santa Clara City Council. Albert is a proven leader who has demonstrated his commitment to our community and children for the past 16 years. His ethics and integrity cannot be matched. He will focus on only what is best for Santa Clara. Please vote for this dedicated public servant. We need Albert!"
