As a Santa Claran, I can no longer sit back and see the city taken over by the 49ers. We need to clean up Santa Clara. It starts with the council.

Santa Clara residents deserve better. We need to invest in infrastructure that continues the outstanding services we receive from fire, police, and city services. We need to invest in our youth with activities such as sports and clubs outside of the home. When I look at my children and the children I have coached at West Side Little League and Santa Clara Youth Soccer, I want them to know our future is bright.

The lack of ethics, honesty, and integrity is an embarrassment to this great city. That's why I've taken the Ethics Pledge. We need to work as a team with proper debates, negotiations, and transparency to put Santa Clara back on track. I will make sure the council is held accountable and creates strategic plans that ensure the needs of all citizens.

I am a 49ers fan, but Santa Clara comes first. The 49ers need to stick to football and stay out of politics. I ask for your vote. Please visit www.davidkertesforcouncil.com.
