As a loving husband, father of four, and CEO of a successful company, I understand the importance of fairness, integrity, and community. Over the past decade, I've built a business that prioritizes customer service and work-life balance, generating over $10M in revenue.

My commitment to Santa Clara runs deep. I'm actively involved in the PTSA and Friends of Wilson Preschool, where our fundraising efforts have enriched student programs, creating brighter futures for our children. I believe in straightforward communication, high-quality service, and empowering others—values that I will bring to the City Clerk's office.

Santa Clara, a city where history meets innovation, deserves a City Clerk who ensures transparency and accountability. I am dedicated to safeguarding our heritage while embracing progress.

Join me in making our city a place where everyone feels valued and heard. Your vote for me is a vote for trust, integrity, and a brighter future for all. Let's build a better Santa Clara together.
